

Progressive Action for the Common Good Presents:

“Obsession, Faith and Hate:
Discussing the Obsession Video”

Tuesday, Nov. 18th: 7:30-8:45 PM
Bettendorf Public Library; 2nd Floor
2950 18th Street; Bettendorf, IA

About our program:

Recently, 25 million Americans were mass-mailed a video titled “Obsession” that grossly misrepresents Islam and Muslims in America. In response, this free community event will intersperse clips from the video “Obsession” with discussion about peaceful and factual responses to bigotry and stereotyping about Muslims and others. This gathering will act on the recent statements from “National Interfaith Relations Council” which said:

"Building constructively on the foundations that unite us in fractured world provides a far more hopeful way ahead for Muslims, Christians, and Jews alike."

This program is free and open to the public!

Light refreshments will be served. Individuals and groups are welcome.
Groups should RSVP to: Lisa Killinger at 563-650-5733 to insure adequate seating.
